El Rey THEATRE

SPECIAL EVENTS

The El Rey Theatre is an original art deco theatre in the heart of the Miracle Mile, one of Los Angeles' preserved art deco districts. The El Rey was built in 1936 and designed by Clifford Balch. After more than 50 years as a first-class movie house, the space was converted into a live music event venue in 1994.

A registered Historic-Cultural Monument, the El Rey Theatre has sweeping staircases, VIP balcony lounge, and a grand ballroom equipped with a full stage.

THE FONDA THEATRE

SPECIAL EVENTS

One of Hollywood's first legitimate theatres, The Henry Ford Music Box Theatre experienced a variety of incarnations during the 1920's, 1930's, and 1940's as part of an entertainment district of exceptional quality and diversity. Keeping with that tradition, The Fonda Theatre re-opened in 2012 and has hosted performers such as Pearl Jam, Black Eyed Peas, Katy Perry, Radiohead, Stevie Wonder, Black Crowes, Alabama Shakes, and Mogwai to name a few.

The Fonda Theatre's history and character create the perfect setting for award ceremonies, film/TV shoots, corporate meetings, private parties, and banquet dinners.
